Work Plan

Papers submitted to Tellus by authors (see short instructions to authors Annex 1) will be submitted in the online process as “MOZAIC–IAGOS 20th Anniversary Symposium”. Guest editors will be given read-only access. This means they can see all that the editors see except they cannot correspond directly online with the authors (that is responsibility of the editors). When a paper is submitted, the guest editors receive a notification. Then the following steps will take place:

1. Using the online tools, the guest editors will screen the papers for quality and recommend acceptance for review or not. If yes, they will recommend reviewers to the editors taking into account the suggestions by the authors as well as their own.
2. The editors will manage appointment of two reviewers using the normal online system. Once they accept, reviewers have one month to submit reviews and are prompted automatically by the system.
3. The guest editors will read the reviews online and recommend to the editors a decision.
4. The Editors will respond appropriately to the author.
5. Steps 3 and 4 will be repeated until acceptance or rejection.
6. Papers will be immediately published as regular Tellus papers AND viewable in the Special Issues section of Tellus online under the full name of the Special Issue (see above)

ANNEX 1

Instructions To Authors Submitting To Tellus B Special Issue on the MOZAIC–IAGOS Scientific Symposium on Atmospheric Composition Observations by Commercial Aircraft: 20th Anniversary, 12 to 15 May 2014

Substantive scientific papers that have been accepted as presentations or posters by the Symposium can be submitted to the online open access scientific Journal Tellus B (www.tellusb.net) any time from 1 May to 15 January 2015.

Papers will be processed as normal by Tellus B editors HC Hansson and Leonard Barrie with the support of guest editors V. Thouret and A. Petzold.

Tellus B is an open access scientific Journal based at Stockholm University Sweden. It is free to access and copyright is held by the authors. Reasonable page charges for publication apply. See the Tellus website for details.

How to submit

Before submitting a paper authors should carefully review the style guidelines for Tellus B. Submit papers online via the Tellus B website. The submission process includes step-by-step instructions. Make sure to choose “MOZAIC–IAGOS 20th Anniversary Symposium” as the journal section (step 1 in the submission process, see below).

Step 1. Starting the Submission

1. START 2. UPLOAD SUBMISSION 3. ENTER METADATA 4. UPLOAD FIGURES/SUPPLEMENTARY FILES 5. CONFIRMATION

Authors submit contributions to this journal through this web site in a five-step process for uploading the manuscript and relevant information, with an option to upload supplementary files, such as higher-resolution graphics, very large tables, supporting research data and large data sets.

The accompanying or cover letter to the editor can be uploaded during Step 4 of the process. If you experience any problems, please refer to the support page.

Submission Check

Indicate that this submission is

Formal agreement:

By checking off the submission, the author(s) warrant that the submission is original and may be held accountable for any breach thereof. Note that this procedure is instead of, but just as valid as, signing the agreement on paper.

1. I, the submitting author, shall be the point of contact throughout the peer review and proofreading process (if applicable).
2. I, the submitting author, warrant that I am authorized by all co-authors to submit this version of the manuscript and to be their spokesperson during the review process and beyond.

If you should encounter difficulty please email support@co-action.net and we will do our best to help.
